Leroy has done just about everything you can do horse back. Outstanding ranch horse, rope and drag to the fire, rope and hold while you get down and doctor, drag on the trailer, and sort. You name it, he can do it and do it pretty well. He is used at the rodeo's as drive out or rope and drag out. You can back him in the box and rope steers either side or get down and tie a calf. He has a great disposition and a willingness to please. You can put anyone on this horse, young or old and send them anywhere. He handles outside country and all types of terrain very nice. He has a great get along and way of going.

Rockin Diamond S Farms is operated by Charlie, Tammy and Cheyenne Stephens. With operations in both, The Foot Hills of Central Texas and in the Badlands of South Dakota. The operation consists of Cow/Calf in both Texas & South Dakota along with yearling operations in Texas. Along with the Gartner Ranch, we run over 60 foundation Quarter Horse mares in South Dakota using four different stallions. We are breeding to bring you a good hard working cow-horse with stamina, disposition and brains, and we top that off with color. Our cattle consist of mostly Angus cows with about 80% covered by Horned Hereford Bulls and 20% by Brahman bulls.

Wow! Cowhorse breeding at its best. An own son of the legendary "Dual Pep" and out of a daughter of "Doc's Hickory" and she won $80,000 in the NCHA. It just doesn't get any better than this. This little horse was originally trained in cutting. He will rope in the pasture and pulls well from the horn, he sorts cattle in the pens, gathers cattle in the pasture, works a gate and has flagged numerous ropings. He travels quiet and smooth with his head down, has lots of cow, great fence work and has been ridden a lot in the woods and in the pasture. He will go anywhere and do anything and is also gentle for anyone to ride. Don't miss this opportunity to purchase a nice royally well bred gelding. You will be proud to own this little guy. He is sound and has no bad habits.

"Prime" was born in the O'Brien Ranch in Beeville, Texas. After halter breaking as a yearling, he was started under saddle as a two year old. For the last six years, he has been a working ranch horse on the O'Brien Ranch. He has covered many miles gathering, doctoring and roping cattle. For the previous 5 months, he has been in Versatility Ranch Horse training with James O'Brien. His easy going disposition and desire to please make him a pleasure to ride, whatever the job. Prime is a mellow sorrel gelding that goes with the flow, but is always alert and watches where he is stepping.

The O'Brien Ranch of Beeville, Texas was founded in 1856 as a cow/calf operation and continues as such today. Cattle are run on 90% of the ranch on open country and are still gathered horseback when they are worked. Good horses are an important asset to the daily operations of the O'Brien Ranch.

The Quarter horse breeding program began in the 1940s and continues as a reputable breeding program today. The south Texas ranch is family owned, operated and considers raising good, usable horses their greatest achievement. The horses raised on the O'Brien Ranch are known for their athletic ability and natural cow sense.

“Parkay” is a big, well made palomino gelding. He was born and raised on the Quien Sabe Ranch in the Texas Panhandle. Parkay has been used on a ranch all of his life and has become the best horse for any job in our remuda. He is a smooth traveler and has lots of handling ability. He has a lot of roping experience as well, from dragging calves to the fire to turning a steer in the arena. Parkay has a lot of expression on cattle in the cutting pen and at the roundup ground. He would be a good addition to anyone’s horse program whether you are a professional roper or any everyday cattleman.

Mike Stephens has been a part of the ranching industry for over 60 years. Mr. Stephens has spent his whole life handling horses and cattle. His accomplishments have not been in front of a crowd at a horse show or a big event, his years of skill and knowledge about a horse has come by spending hours a day riding and making a good ranch horse. This horse has made many tracks on ranch soil. He has been expected to perform all aspects of ranch work since a young age. He was started in Texas and worked in Louisiana and Texas on numerous outfits. This horse has been used to sort and gather cattle since a colt. He has lots of cow and is very snappy. He has been used at the hold up to doctor sick calves out of the herd, he has drug calves and roped many cows and yearlings in the pasture. We have also started heeling on him out of the box some, but only a handful of times. He has been in the head box a few times also. This horse has an outstanding endurance and stamina and can cover a lot of country. He stands to be shod nicely, and he loads in the trailer fantastic. He hasn't bucked since I've owned him. This horse wants to be friends.

Zach Watson's background consists of being a part of both industries, ranching and horses. His goal is to become a better horseman and cowboy. He has worked on big outfits, both cow/calf and precondition yards. Through his experience, he learned what a good cowboy is by watching and learning from some of the best. Currently he is a day hand and starts colts for the public. He gives the glory for his success to Jesus Christ.

“Whiskey” was born on the O’Brien Ranch in Beeville, TX. He was halter broke as a yearling and started under saddle as a 2 year old. Whiskey has been used as a ranch horse for the last 5 years gathering cattle. He has been roped on both, in the pasture and in the arena. He is good looking and athletic with a lot of cow. He has been in Versatility Ranch Horse training with James O’Brien for the previous 5 months. This bay gelding is a very kind fellow with a big eye and the desire to please.

The O’Brien Ranch of Beeville, Texas was founded in 1856 as a cow/calf operation and continues as such today. Cattle are run on 90% of the ranch on open country and are still gathered horseback when they are worked. Good horses are an important asset to the daily operations of the O’Brien Ranch.

The Quarter horse breeding program began in the 1940s and continues as a reputable breeding program today. The south Texas ranch is family owned, operated and considers raising good, usable horses their greatest achievement. The horses raised on the O’Brien Ranch are known for their athletic ability and natural cow sense.
